Record on the City Clerk's Books Shows that the Paper Has Not Paid the Amount.

City Clerk alleged loosepermitting gamblers to stay fines at their pleasure, was used to stay the fine of a crap shooter. Thomas Ware, convicted of gambling June 24, 1901, and the fine has never been paid. Ware was arrested June 13, 1901, for shooting craps. He was arrested by Patrolman Shine and taken before Judge Daly, the then police judge, and charged with loitering and gaming. He was fined by Judge Daly $5 and costs in each case, the total amount being $30. The fine was stayed by W. W. Heiskell, an employe of the Indianapolis News. The record for June 24, 1901, shows

"I, the undersigned, hereby acknowldge myself to be replevin bail for the stay of execution of the opposite judgment for ninety days from the rendition thereof, and sing duly sworn upon my oath say that am the owner in my own name and right of real estate free of all incumbrance, sitted in Marion county, State of Indiana, of the value of $1,000.

Edwin D. Logsdon Says Judge Stubbs

Paid Campaign Contribution.

Edwin D. Logsdon, against whom charges were made by Judge Stubbs, formerly judge of the Police Court, that he had appealed for leniency for Gus Rahke, the gambler, and that Logsdon had told him and others that Rahke had contributed a large amount regret to sever their official relations with to the campaign fund, says that Judge Stubbe himself paid $500 to the fund and that the amount was furnished by a check ed by the Indianapolis Brewing Comonny. Mr. Logsdon says that he distinctly remembers that Judge Stubbs paid a conoution into the campaign fund with a rewing company check, indorsed on the ack by Judge Stubbs himself. Judge Stubbs es the truth of this, but Logsdon asserts that the matter can be proved.

FIRST MEETING HELD AT SOUTH SIDE TURNER HALL.

Mayor Bookwalter and Henry Victor Welcome the Visitors-The Complete Programme.

The first formal meeting of the representatives of the societies of the Indiana district of the North American Turnerbund and the North American Gymnastic Association, who are in Indianapolis to take part in their annual gymnastic tournament, was held last night, when about three hundren Turners from Chicago, South Bend, Fort Wayne, Terre Haute and other Illinois and Indiana cities and Louisville, Ky., were given a welcome reception at the South Side Turner Hall.

The gymnastic tournament will extend over two days and will be concluded tomorrow night with a festival ball at the South Side Turner Hall. The tournament will be the biggest German affair held in Indianapolis for several years. The contests will be held in Germania Park and will be begun at 7 o'clock this morning. Fully 2,000 Turners are expected in Indianapolis to-day. A Chicago delegation will come in two special cars. The Fort Wayne and South Bend societies have planned to run excursions for the tournament. Most of those who will compete for the tournament prizes had arrived in the city last night. The crowds to come to-day will be visiting Turners.

THOSE IN CHARGE. The entire affair is under the direction of the Socialer Turnverein and the South Side Turnverein of Indianapolis, who will be assisted by members of the Independent Turnverein. Following are the societies of the Indiana district of the North American Turnerbund and the North American Gymnastic Association: Louisville Turngemeinde: Socialer Turnverein and Sued Seite Turnverein, Indianapolis: Socialer Turnverein, Danville, Ill.; Socialer Turnverein, Tell City, Ind.; South Bend Turnverein; Chicago Turngemeinde; Central Turnverein and Sued Seite Turnverein, Chicago; Turnverein Vorwarts, Fort Wayne; Central Turnverein, Evansville; Terre Haute Turnverein. All will be fully represented in the tournament. One hundred and fifty Turners will compete for the prizes. The reception at the South Side Turner

Hall was held in the summer garden, which was in gala garb for the visiting athletes. The maric was furnished by Beiser's Band. Mayor Bookwalter, Henry Victor, president of the South Side Turnverein, and Philip Rappaport, representing the Turners' national organization, were the speakers. Mayor Bookwalter spoke of the large part German citizens have taken in the upbuilding of Indianapolis "both physically and morally." He said the Germans have, ndeed, been a large factor in making Indianapolis the beautiful and fine city it is. He spoke of the attention the German citizens always give their families and thought. no matter if the President of the United States does think race suicide is in progress in this country, the Germans are not of this opinion and are not the people who are responsible for the decrease in the number of the children in this country. praised the Germans for building South Side Turner Hall and taking their wives and children there to enjoy themselves "after their own bent." Mr. Victor spoke a brief welcome to the visiting Turners and thanked them because Indianapolis has been given the honor of having the big gymnastic tournament. THE PROGRAMME. Following is the complete programme for

S. B. Rathbone Will Leave To-Day for New Work at Omaha.

Headquarters of the middle division of the rural free delivery service in this city were abandoned yesterday and the offices in the Majestic building vacated. Indiana will now be a part of the division with Ohio and Kentucky, with headquarters in Cincinnati. Practically all of the inspectors who have been attached to the headquarters here will be transferred to Cincinnati. S. B. Rathbone, who has been the superintendent in charge of the headquarters here, will leave to-day for Chicago, en route to Omaha, where he will be stationed in the future. Yesterday was a day of leave-taking at the offices here and many of the inspectors came in to say good-bye to Mr. Rathbone. Mr. Rathbone is one of the most popular men in the service, and the men who have worked under him hold Rathbone has accomplished a great amount of work for Indiana during his tenure here. The extent and excellent condition of the rural free delivery service in Indiana are due largely to his efforts, and it is a matter of State pride that Indiana ranks second in territory and on a par with any other State in the quality of the serv-

COL. JOHN B. GREEN DEAD.

He Gained Some Prominence as

Democratic Politician. Col. John B. Green, formerly prominent in Indiana Democratic politics, died early yesterday morning of a complication of diseases resulting from hardening of the arteries, at the home of his daughter, Mrs. P. B. Trone, 2232 Broadway. His wife and three daughters, Mrs. Trone, W. H. Donaldson, also of this city, and Mrs. W. C. Burk, of Thorntown, survive him.

Colonel Green was nearly seventy-four years old. He was born in Louisville. Soon characters. The opium layout was after the civil war, he came to Indiana, settling at Frankfort. There he became

REPAIRS TO SCHOOL BUILDINGS.

Members of School Board Also Discuss New Steam Plant for No. 4.

The committee on buildings and grounds of the Board of School Commissioners met yesterday afternoon with Business Director Cleland to discuss repairs and improvements to be made during the summer vacation. School buildings generally are to be overhauled and where repairs are necessary they will be made. The most important improvement discussed was the proposed steam plant for school No. 4. It will probably be put in this summer at a cost of several thousands of dollars, although Mr. Cleland submitted no estimate of the cost at the meeting yesterday. The equip-ment of the new Irvington school to be erected this summer was also a matter before the committee.

STATISTICS SHOW THAT IT STEADILY DECREASING.

This Is Especially True of the Indiana State Prison-Visits to the Institutions.

From statistics at hand Secretary Butler, of the State Board of Charities, estimates that the population of the prisons of the country is steadily decreasing. This is particularly true of the Indiana state prison at Michigan City. People who give prison matters special study conclude that this decrease is principally due to the reform methods in operation in different States and to the generally prosperous condition of the country. There is an old saying that "the devil finds work for idle hands," and Secretary Butler thinks the adage is applicable. With plenty of work men are not likely to get into trouble.

Secretary Butler, with other members of the Board of Charities, spent part of last week visiting some of the state institutions. They visited the state prison at Michigan City, the Reformatory at Jeffersonville and the Southern Hospital for the Insane at Evansville. Mr. Butler returned home yesterday evening. Alluding to the visits to the institutions he said: "At the Reformatory we were pleased with the conditions that exist. The general condition of the institution is improved, the discipline is good and the spirit, so far as we could detect, of both officers and inmates is commendable. Superintendent Bevers is doing a good work there. All the cellhouses are occupied, and quite a number of illiterate young prisoners are being received and taught in a special school conducted half of each day. A number of prisoners are being taught carpentering, painting and tinsmithing, and at the same time they are given work in each particular line of em-ployment that is needed about the institution in keeping up repairs. The results of the operation of the parole system are very satisfactory. As to the Southern Hospital the new superintendent, Dr. Laughlin, has only recently taken hold, and we are very desirous that he shall be successful in his administration of the institution. We desire to encourage him in every way we can in order that he may bring the institution up to a proper standard.

"As to the prison at Michigan City, the institution is in excellent condition. discipline under Warden Reld is good. The feeling of both officers and men is commendable. The repairs are well kept up and neatness, cleanliness and system seems to be the rule everywhere. The decrease in the number of prisoners is to be observed There were 768 prisoners present yesterday a decrease since the same time last year of about seventy-five. The average daily attendance at the prison during the year 1901 was 864. For three or four years there has been a gradual decrease in the number of prisoners in the state prisons gen-

THEY DECIDE TO GIVE THE UNION NO RECOGNITION.

Strike Question May Become a Serious One for the Building Trades of the City.

The mill owners of the city yesterday notified the committee representing the carpenters' union that they did not recognize the unions as the proper medium through which to conduct their negotiations with their employes and that they furthermore 10 a. m.-Contest in field work, as: Pole | had nothing to arbitrate; consequently they vaulting; hop, step and jump; putting the refused to confer with the committee. This communication gives a serious aspect to the trouble between the mill workers and the mill owners. Some time ago the mill employes made a demand for higher wages and shorter hours. The matter was put into the hands of the local district council of the Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners, who sent to the mill operators resolutions of the demands of the planers, which asked that the minimum scale of wages be thirty cents, where it has been twenty-

The mill planers, it is said, are working at much lower prices than any of the other union men. The resolution also asked that the working day be cut from ten hours to nine hours and that time and a half be paid for overtime and double time for Sundays and legal holidays. A committee was appointed consisting of Harry Travis, of the local Carpenters' Union; Frank Duffy, of the National Union, and John Hirsch, of the Mill Workers' Union, to meet the mill owners and discuss the situation. The refusal of the mill presidents to hold a conference, however, makes it necessary for the mill workers to act. The operators say that labor is now absorbing all the per cent. of cost justified by the prices they are able to get for their products and that they cannot consider an advance. No hasty action is expected from the mill men as the course of action will be decided upon by the district council at its meeting Tuesday night. The local unions of which there are six, say they will stand by the mill workers in case they strike. Mr. Travis said last night that he was surprised that the mill presidents would not talk the matter over with their committee and try to come to some agreement. He said a strike of the mill planers meant a tie-up of the building trade. He would not say what action would be taken by the council. Frank Duffy. secretary of the United Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners said that if he had the power of the council he would call a strike to-day. There are about 200 mill planers in

The Strongest Indorsement

For the superiority of the Lapland Refrigerator is the fact we have sold the same for ten years, and in that time we have never had a single complaint.

MINERAL WOOL is used in part for insulating these celebrated Refrigerators. It is a vitreous substance, having the appearance of wool. It is made from the slag of blast furnaces by throwing a jet of steam against a small stream of liquid glass. In this manner it is so expanded that it contains 92 per cent. of air and only 8 per cent. of the original substance. This air is confined and held in position, consequently cannot carry heat, and makes the best known insulating material. It is also indestructible, and will not mold or smell.

AIR, when it has not the freedom to circulate, is the greatest barrier to the transmission of heat. To prevent the conveying of heat to the inside of our Refrigerators the air space in the walls is made as near air-tight as possible. The dead air space, in connection with the mineral wool and nonconducting sheathing, makes the best insulating combination that has ever been attempted. We suggest that you buy as large a Refrigerator as possible on account of the cold-storage facilities. See the large size Solid Oak Lapland,
